Notes for Reginald Arnold Winstall:

General Notes:

After his birth on 25 May 1927 in Calgary, Alberta, Canada, Reginald Winstall moved to Vancouver, British Columbia at the age of 3 months. His parents divorced when Reg was 5 years old, after which he lived with his father, Paul Winstall.

On the 14th of May, 1938, at the age of 10 years, Reg and his father set sail for the Philippines on the ship "Empress of Asia". Paul was establishing business ties in the diamonds and gem industry. Reg celebrated his 11th birthday in Hong Kong and spent the next while visiting Shanghai, Japan, Tokyo, Yokohama, Nagasaki, Kyoto and Kobe and the Philippines where he first learned to swim.

He took the Japanese ship "Atsuta Maru" to Sydney, Australia, and from there, flew to Broken Hill, New South Wales; a mining place where he stayed 3 months. He settled in Melbourne, Australia for the next six years: 2 years at Xavier Prep school and 4 years in senior school. He returned to Toronto, Ontario where he finished high school at St. Michael's and continued on to the University of Toronto to obtain his B.A. degree. After University, he and a friend traveled throughout the United States.

Upon his return to Canada, he entered the priesthood. He obviously had another calling and soon married Mary Regan. While working in the diamond and gem industry, he and Mary resided in New York, New York for a short time.

Reg became a certified diver instructor and flight instructor of small engine aircraft. He often did underwater drilling and prospecting but traveling became too much. He then turned his attention to teaching, specializing in English and guidance counseling. He took a sabbatical and completed his PhD in counseling at the University of Ottawa.

After retiring from teaching, Reg moved to Whitby, Ontario where he now resides with his wife, Mary. He has three children: Susan, Steven, and Michelle.
